OVERVIEW

Eric Moreno is an associate in the firm's Labor, Employment, and Workplace Safety practice. He has represented clients in state court and before state administrative agencies, with a particular focus in New Jersey and New York. Eric has experience representing employers in a variety of matters, including discrimination suits, employee grievances and wage and hour suits.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Eric was a labor and employment associate at a law firm based in New Jersey. Through this role, Eric performed due diligence related to labor and employment issues on mergers and acquisitions; assisted in wage and hour audit investigations; and assisted in internal investigations relating to retaliation, sexual harassment, employee fraud, and corruption claims. In addition, he appeared as pro bono counsel in a domestic violence case, conducted legal research, drafted legal memorandums, and more.

Eric also previously served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Sheila Venable, A.J.S.C. in Essex County. Through this role, Eric worked on various civil and criminal matters and coordinated trial court administrative activities.
