OVERVIEW

Kate Goodrich is a partner and a member of the Public Policy and Law practice group. Prior to joining the firm, Kate served as a senior policy advisor at a nationally ranked law firm where she advised clients on public policy and regulatory matters. Kate also held key legal and policy roles within the Texas Legislature, including serving as deputy general counsel and policy advisor to the Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, where she provided counsel on legislative and procedural issues and advised on priority bills related to budget, transportation, veterans, housing, and local government.

This is a temporary biography. A complete biography will be available soon.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Earlier in her career, Kate worked as an attorney and governmental affairs consultant, advancing policy goals for clients in healthcare, transportation, and nonprofit sectors. Kate also served in several capacities within the Texas Senate, including deputy general counsel and deputy committee director for the Health and Human Services Committee, budget analyst for the Finance Committee, and legal fellow for the Natural Resources and Economic Development Committee. Additionally, Kate began their career as a federally registered lobbyist in Washington, DC, managing transportation-focused government affairs strategies and engaging directly with Congressional members and staff.
