OVERVIEW

Limo Cherian is the co-leader of the Healthcare and FDA practice group. She focuses her practice on healthcare regulatory, transactional and litigation issues. She has represented physicians and physician groups, clinically integrated organizations, managed services organizations, and hospitals, as well as other corporate and governmental clients. Limo has advised clients on regulatory and compliance matters related to Stark, Anti-Kickback and Civil Monetary Penalties issues. She has also advised clients regarding Medicare fraud and abuse issues, reimbursement and antitrust issues. Limo has experience litigating healthcare matters including contesting certificate of need decisions, physician restrictive covenants and payment disputes. She has also litigated and negotiated issues involving, managed care contracts, professional services agreements and information technology contracts. Limo has experience in trial proceedings in State and Federal courts across the United States, as well as in administrative proceedings and arbitrations. She also has experience in appellate practice and has briefed and argued appeals both in federal and state appeals courts.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Limo was a partner in the Chicago office of a healthcare boutique. She also served as an assistant attorney general with the Office of the Illinois Attorney General and has served as a special assistant attorney general for litigation on behalf of a public university.
