OVERVIEW

Sarah Turpin is a partner in the Insurance Recovery and Counseling practice. She represents policyholders seeking coverage under a broad range of insurance policies, including Professional Liability, Directors and Officers' Liability, Public/Product Liability, Property/Business Interruption, Event Cancellation, Credit Risk/Political Risk, and Cyber and Technology Risks. She acts for policyholders in relation to disputed insurance claims, if necessary through mediation, litigation, or arbitration, and advises on claims notification and claims management issues. Sarah also advises on policy wordings at the pre-contract stage, including in the context of corporate, real estate, and finance transactions. Her policyholder clients come from a wide variety of industry sectors, including financial and professional services, consumer products, technology, leisure and entertainment, fine art and exhibitions.

In addition to her coverage practice, Sarah represents directors, trustees, and other professionals in the mitigation and defence of professional liability claims.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm in September 2005, Sarah worked for a leading insurance coverage practice in the city, acting primarily for insurers and Lloyd's underwriters and their insureds, having trained and qualified in the insurance group of another prestigious city firm.

Sarah is currently co-global practice group coordinator of the Insurance Recovery and Counseling practice at the firm.
